report to the listener

Dear Listener,

Here we are. It's almost the middle of 1991 and where's the time gone? Global events threaten more chaos: war abroad and racism at home. The only recent good news that comes to mind is the blessed rains that fell over California in late March.

What a serious world we live in. Still, summer's coming and in times past, this season means a break for school children and an opportunity for vacations. Here's hoping for a good summer to you and yours from KPFK's staff and management.

In our offices, summer represents budget and planning time. Not to mention all the other activities that support the 24-hour life of community radio.

KPFK has an important hire to make in the area of Public Affairs and then we'll begin mapping plans for improving the sound of this station.

Once again, I'd like to encourage those of you with thoughts about KPFK's programming to send them along to me. In doing this, I'd like to appeal to the intuitive programmer in all of you: what do you like? What doesn't appeal to you? What areas and topics should receive more attention? What about the overall sound of KPFK?

Your support before, during and after the Persian Gulf War has enabled our thinking about better programming for you. And while the approach is still evolving, we want to solicit your sense of radio. Thank you.

By the middle of this month, another apprenticeship training group will be selected. This class of approximately 10 volunteers will undergo extensive hands-on in radio. All it takes is commitment, since the training is free. The deadline for applications is June 14. People of color and women are encouraged to apply.

As always, volunteers are desired for help during our summer fund drive. This season, we'll go for nine days: June 17 through June 25. It's the most intense time in the life of a public radio station as — with your help — we sing for our supper.

Alan Fong

The next meeting of the KPFK station board will be June 4th.

The Pacifica Foundation provides the KPFK mailing list to an organization which in turn rents or exchanges, on behalf of the Foundation, mailing lists of other non-profit organizations. If you object to having your name and address used in this way, please write to our Subscriptions Department, enclosing a recent Folio label, and we will omit you from our exchange list.

If your request has already been entered into the computer, the letters "NX" will appear on the top line of your mailing label, to the right of the expiration date.

program highlights

SUMMER FUND DRIVE

June 17 through June 25

Tune in for the latest information about the "progress" of the New World Order, the aftermath of the Gulf War, the health of the planet, and the state of the world from speakers including John Stockwell, Philip Agee, Wilmette Brown, Ralph Schoenman, Helen Caldicott and Ramsey Clark. You can be part of this history in the making by volunteering to answer phones. Call for information at (818) 985-2711 during office hours.

HOME FRONT:
PACIFICA RADIO'S
LIVE TOWN HALL
MEETINGS

June 27 & July 25, 6:00 pm

Pacifica Radio is broadcasting five live meetings on subjects ranging from Immigration to Drugs and Civil Liberties to the Environment. The first of these meetings, broadcast live via satellite from KPFT, Houston in June, looks at Disorder on the Border, the problem of violence at the U.S./Mexico border. While some accuse the Marines and the INS of the problem, others point at vigilante groups. Furthermore, a gap in the labor force is causing the government to encourage the influx of white collar workers, including computer programmers, medical personnel and electronic experts. A panel of experts will discuss what this says about our immigration policy, as well as asking how the US will provide for the immigrants when it can hardly provide for its own citizens.

The second meeting Drugs and Thugs: A Meeting on Drugs and Civil Liberties, will be hosted by KPFK and broadcast live from the Robert Frost auditorium in Culver City. While tons of drugs have been seized since the government's "War on Drugs" began, the demand has hardly diminished. Citizens, eager for greater security in their communities, seem willing to trade their civil liberties for stronger law enforcement measures.

Pacifica anchor and commentator Larry Binsky will moderate the discussion between the expert panel, live audience and call-in audience. Stay tuned for details on how to participate in the debate as one of our live call-in audience members.

(Please note schedule changes for Thursday June 27 and July 25: Wizards moves to Wed. 4:00 pm, the Calendar will be broadcast Thursday at 5:25, Times in Review Thursday 5:30.)

INDEPENDENCE DAY

July 4th

In 1990, the National Organization for Women formed The Commission for Responsive Democracy. The Commission is holding a series of forums around the country to address several pertinent topics, including new strategies for the political empowerment of under-represented groups, and electron reform. KPFK's celebration of Independence Day will include a number of speakers from these forums.

Jay Green presents his annual Independence Day Special of music and interview with Sun Ra and his Arkestra (noon to 2:00 pm).

And Mario Casetta and Marcus Lopez bring you a continuation of their exploration into Who Discovered America (6:30-8:30 pm).

Playhouse 90.7 Sharon Rosewoman presents Bricktop (2:00-3:40 pm), a one-woman biography by Gammy Singer that follows the blues pioneer from her Vaudeville origins, to her success as the owner of a Parisian nightclub. The musical was written by Gammy Singer, and features Marvin Evans on the piano.

(Please note that there will be no Morning News, Times in Review or Pacifica Network News today. However, Noticiero Pacifica, Uno de Sal, Enfoque Latino and La Nueva Cancion will be broadcast as usual.)

14TH ANNUAL LESBIAN/GAY DAY

July 7, 9:00 am 'til midnight

The Lesbian and Gay Radio Collective presents Together in Pride, a wide-ranging array of programming to cap off Lesbian and Gay Pride Month. A full day of discussion, documentaries, music, poetry, drama and two comic book heroes with a lavender hue present a celebration of a diverse community fighting oppression and promoting understanding. "Together in Pride." For a completely updated program schedule, call the IMRU Information Line after June 15, (213) 833-0283.

SQUARE PEGS

BIOGRAPHY OF COLEMAN HAWKINS

Jay Green presents an eight-part Coleman Hawkins Special about the tenor saxophonist who led the way for such notable players as Ben Webster, Sonny Rollins and John Coltrane. Tune in to this inspirational program of music, thoughts from other musicians and a rare interview with Coleman Hawkins. (Starting July 11 at noon, this program continues through August.)

THE SOUNDS AND THE FURY

This sound collage history of KPFK shows us the good times and the not-so-good times of this listener-sponsored experiment in free speech. Lucia Chappelle, Bob Young and many others have updated this program that was originally produced by Chappelle and the late Mike Hodel. (July 27, 9:00 pm)

SOWETO ANNIVERSARY

This program examines the issues involved in the negotiations for removing the main pillars of apartheid and moving toward a non-racial South Africa. On the anniversary of the student revolt on June 16, 1976, host Assumpta Oтуру talks to scholars, South Africans and Africans from other parts of the continent who debate the ongoing issue of achieving social balance and restoring the most basic freedoms. (June 15, 10:30 pm)

SANDANISTA AND CUBAN REVOLUTIONS

Enfoque Latino presents a two-part special on the Sandanista Revolution, (Noon, July 18; 2:00 pm July 19), as well as a special on the Cuban Revolution, (8:00 pm, July 24.)

9:30-11:30 am INDEPENDENT MUSIC

A Harvest of Harmonia Mundi. A label by which all others judge their standards, Harmonia Mundi is also an international distributor, for which the same exquisite quality is observed. Today we salute H.M.'s newest offering, the distribution in the U.S.A. of Quintana, the new label from Hungary. Quint Records expects to produce some 40 discs per year, featuring, in the main, some of the greatest performers of Central Europe. Let's hear Quint's "Children's Corner" (Zoltan Kocsis, piano; with Mozart, Beethoven, Schumann, Debussy and Bartok); Hyperion Records' "Awake, Sweet Love," lute and consort songs by John Dowland and his contemporaries with James Bowman (countertenor), David Miller (lute) and The Viols of the King's Consort; Le Chant de Monde's Bolshoi Theatre Children's Choir; and two of Harmonia Mundi's own recent splendid releases from France, Handel's "Arias for Guzzoni" with the Philharmonia Baroque Orchestra and Robert Taub at the piano with Vol III of "Scriabin's Sonatas." High tone stuff? You bet; nothing's too good for KPFK's working class folks! Mario Casetta hosts (and throws in some "Polynesian Percussion" from Playa Sound, a nod toward the ethnic music freaks.)

5:00-5:55 pm FEMINIST MAGAZINE

The regular first-Wednesday "Feminist Analysis of the News" by Dr. Betty Brooks, Jude McGee and Flavia Potenza, with Carol Tice's "Sound-Off" commentary... plus Naomi Goffman's women's community calendar.

Paul Horn Inside the Taj Mahal II. A supreme spiritual, meditative and moving experience awaits you this morning: 48 minutes and 23 seconds of pure, pure beauty with Paul Horn and his flute. He traveled from Victoria, Canada to Agra, India to the most famous and beautiful mausoleum in the world, the exquisite Taj Mahal built by the Mogul Emperor Shah Jahan for his beloved wife, Mumtaz Mahal. In this setting, this gorgeous splendour, we will be listening to flute, alto flute, bass flute, ti-tze (Chinese bamboo flute), soprano saxophone: Paul Horn; Vocals: Saad Ullah Khan. "Perfect" acoustics for the second recording some 20 years later! For you score-keepers: this CD is from the Kuckuck label in Germany and is distributed in the U.S.A. and Canada by Celestial Harmonies, P.O.B. 30122, Tucson, AZ 85751. Recorded direct to stereo with a Panasonic DAD recorder SV-250 using DeByl microphones made in Berlin. Produced by Paul Horn and mastered by Dan Hersch at DigiPrep in Hollywood.

5:00-5:55 pm SPOTLIGHT AFRICA

Our music feature focuses on the rebirth of Zairean Classics from the 1950s. We highlight the pioneers, Dr. Nico, Franco, Tabu Ley and others, who made the music that dominated most of Africa for three decades. The newest style is Zoukous. The book we review tonight is Cultural Forces in World Politics by Ali Mazrui, Africa's respected and reputable scholar, now Albert Schweitzer Professor in the State University of New York, Binghamton. Professor Mazrui discusses ideas for an alternate world order.

9:30-11:30 am INDEPENDENT MUSIC

Josephine Baker, George Lewis and his Ragtime Band, Ray Charles' Greatest Hits. It's almost too much to contemplate at one time, let alone listen to the music! (But that is just what Mario Casetta and his guest host, Karole Selmon, have in mind.) At 13, she ran off to join a traveling road show, a few years later she was one of 25 black performers brought to Paris in 1925 for "La Revue Nègre," becoming an overnight star, and a year later, at 20, Josephine Baker broke the color barrier and became the star of France's biggest and most prestigious show, the Folies Bergere in a production that took months to rehearse, had a cast and crew of 500 people (!) and 1,200 costumes. From then until her death in 1975, she was never far from press agents and her adoring fans the world around. An incredible story this morning on KPFK. Also, "Georgian (sic) On My Mind" with Ray Charles and "Panama" with George Lewis and his Ragtime Band. Put together by DCC Compact Classics, 8300 Tampa Ave. Northridge, CA 91324. Salute them. This is the kind of program that makes you glad you're a sponsor of listener-sponsored KPFK. Hosted by Mario Casetta.

10:30 pm-Mid SOWETO ANNIVERSARY

This year the anniversary of the Soweto uprising is dominated by a climate of negotiations for a non-racial South Africa: Though the international community is rewarding Frederick De Klerk for removing the main pillars of Apartheid, there is no evidence of one-man-one-vote. Tonight we examine the issues in the negotiations and the future prospects in a country where the most basic freedoms have been denied. Social balance should be achieved through education, ironically the very issue that brought about the student revolt on June 16, 1976.

Scholars, South Africans and Africans from other parts of the continent will debate the issues in this program hosted by Assumpta Oтуру.

Disorder on the Border: A Town Hall Meeting on Immigration. The increasing flood of illegal immigrants into the U.S. has aroused border violence from both the INS and vigilante groups. Tonight, a distinguished panel of experts representing different points of view will examine who is responsible for the violence and how the U.S. can provide services for these immigrants when it can hardly provide services for its citizens.

The panel includes: Michael Lempres, Executive Commissioner of the Immigration and Naturalization Service, and previously with the Dept. of Justice. Celia Munoz is the Senior Immigration Policy Analyst for the National Council of La Raza, a Washington DC umbrella organization representing 128 Hispanic community-based organizations throughout the U.S. and Puerto Rico. Raul Hinojosa, a visiting scholar at the Institute for International Studies in Berkeley, is an expert on the interdependence of the economies of the U.S. and Mexico. Bill Hing, an associate professor at Stanford Law School, teaches Immigration Law and Policy, Immigration Law Clinic, and Lawyering Process for Social Change. Maria Jimenez is the Director of Education and Communication for the American Friends Service Committee in Houston. She is responsible for developing and implementing the Immigration Law Enforcement Monitoring Project. The Town Hall meeting is hosted by Larry Bensky, Pacifica National Affairs Correspondent, produced by Ginny Z. Berson, and executive produced by Bill Wax.

years ago — just fancy — that Bruce Iglauer created Alligator to cut one record. And that was "Hound Dog Taylor and the House Rockers." It was cut in just two nights in 1971, (about the same time that Mario Casetta started broadcasting at KPFK), the rest, as they say, is history: Mario has a balding head, torn finger nails and moth holes in his sweater, Alligator Records is on the map with an enviable catalog of great Chicago jazz and a wide circle of clients who are lavish in their praise. We all salute Bruce and company! Here's to the next 20 years of 1983-Women's peace encampment begins in Seneca Falls, New York.

For, in the final analysis, God is not interested merely in the freedom of black people and brown people and yellow people. God is interested in the freedom of the whole human race and in the creation of a society where everyone will live together as brothers and sisters and where every person will respect the dignity and worth of every other human being. Martin Luther King.

Featured programming for the holiday will include speeches from The Commission for Responsive Democracy Hearings sponsored around the country by NOW.

noon-2:00 pm STRAIGHT, NO CHASER

pendence with music and an interview from Sun Ra and his Arkestra.

Tune into Playhouse 90.7 for Gammy Singer's Bricktop. 2:00 pm on July 4th.

2:00-3:40 pm PLAYHOUSE 90.7

Bricktop, Queen of Cafe Society. This month's Playhouse 90.7 brings you a musical with — and by — Gammy Singer. Her one-woman biography follows Bricktop, a Blues pioneer, from the Vaudeville circuit to her pinnacle as owner of a Parisian nightclub. The story is a bittersweet song-and-dance reminiscence that also illustrates the early history of black theater. The play was written and directed by Gammy Singer, with piano by Marvin Evans. The production was adapted for radio by Sharon Rosewoman.

6:30-8:30 pm THEY ALL DISCOVERED AMERICA, II

Mario Casetta and Marcus Lopez bring you a continuation of their program, Who Discovered America. This mixture of spoken word and music examines Columbus' role in that long list of people who "discovered" America. It looks at the relationship of the Native Americans to these discoverers and adds a dimension to this year's celebration of independence.

3:30-4:00 Point of Youth Jan Robinson Flint presents a program that focuses on teens, featuring music, interviews, call-ins, poetry and politics — all from teens who talk from their vantage points on how they are organizing to do something to improve their world.

"Director Yves Robert's luminous adaptation of Marcel Pagnol's La Gloire de Mon Pere (My Father's Glory) is turning into that rare phenomenon: a French blockbuster.

More people attended Pagnol's plays in three decades than Moliere's in three centuries. 'He's sort of a French Charles Dickens,' says Raymond Castans, author of a 1987 Pagnol biography.

What was Pagnol's secret? A key ingredient is what some critics call 'Pagnolia'. They have used the word to describe the author's gentle world that became part of the French collective imagination; a literary landscape in which the small dramas of daily life unfold in Southern France. Says Serge Toubiana, editor of Cahiers du Cinema: '...It's the inviolable myth of France, the family, the children: Pagnol in harmony and unity.'

Coleman Hawkins Special Born in St. Joseph, Missouri on November 21, 1904, Coleman Hawkins started music early. At the age of five he took up the piano, and four years later, in 1913, he switched to the saxophone. Because there were no tenor saxophones on the scene at the time, it could be said that Hawkins paved the way for players like Ben Webster, Sonny Rollins and John Coltrane — all of whom have acknowledged their debt to his inspiration and style.

This program starts today and will continue every Thursday afternoon through the month of July. Tune in for lots of music, a rare interview with Coleman Hawkins and thoughts from other musicians on his greatness. Jay Green hosts.
